ARABIC READING LIST: SDG 4 QUALITY EDUCATION

Title: You will never leave
Author name: Abeer Mohamed Anwar
Publisher: Nahdet Misr
Language: Arabic
ISBN: 978-977-14-5656-8
Target Age of reader: 12+

المستخلص:
Psychologist Amal works in an orphanage and suffers from a severe health problem, forcing the orphanages in charge of making a decision that she should leave. The orphaned girls, that Amal took care of them and improved their conditions try to keep her in the orphanage, and in the end Amal discover herself and learn from her own experiences.

Title: My Place in the school

Author name: Feronic Abt

Publisher: Yomad for publishing

Language: Arabic

ISBN: 978-9954-0-0087-9

Target Age of reader: 9-12
Aisha lives in a village in southern Morocco. Every day she watch the children who go to school. She would like to go there too, but she has to help her mother with the housework, then her friend to help her learn to read and write, and finally go to school.
The story of a child discovering the joy of reading. A young boy travels inside one of the books he was reading. This book highlights that the reader has a treasure in his hands by reading books, as he can travel a long distance from where he sits.